

January 4, 2024

To All Students,

Trustee (Education), Vice-President

<IMPORTANT> Classes Format for January 9th to 11th

Classes from January 9th to 11th will continue to be held online. (Some experiments and practical training may be conducted face-to-face.) Please check WebClass and lecture announcements to understand how classes will be held on those days. If you are unable to attend a remote class due to the disaster, please inform your class instructor of your circumstances by using 'Student Information Service'. In the case where you do not have a means of communication, please contact us once you become contactable.

Since it is also the time for the submission of theses and dissertations, the campus will not be closed. Students should be informed by their instructors to take safety precautions and to follow the instructions provided regarding laboratory activities, seminar activities, etc.

The use of the yacht yard, the 3rd gymnasium (training room), and the swimming pool for extracurricular activities is prohibited for the time being.
